

I heartily encourage the FCC to reject the claims of the NAB that satellite radio should be prohibited from locally oriented programming. Satellite radio is an incredible technological innovation, and in the interest of the consumer, should not be denied First Amendment rights. Please deny the request of the NAB and represent me and thousands of others who benefit from this new technology.